HAWKER TELLS
STORY OF RESCUE
IN MID OCEAN

London, May 27.—Harry G. Hawker's ride to London today was a triumphal procession.

A big crowd had gathered at the railway station in Edinburgh, when the train bringing the daring Australian pilot and his navigator, MacKenzie Grieve, arrived. The two men tried to make their way unnoticed to the station restaurant to get breakfast, but were surrounded and carried on the shoulders of the crowd, while thousands cheered.

Later in the morning they received ovations from smaller throngs gathered at all the stations in Scotland as they approached the English border. Upon their arrival at the Marlyebone station here tonight they will be met by an official reception committee and escorted by members of the Royal Aero Club and Australian soldiers to the Aero club houses. The police have made arrangements to handle the big crowds along the two mile route the two aviators will travel.

Among the messages of congratulations received at Hawker's home were notes from the king and queen, Sir Joseph Cook, Premier Hughes, of Australia and Admirals Benson and Knapp.

Describing his experiences today to correspondents aboard the train on which he is traveling to London, Hawker said that until his water filter became choked he was certain that he would reach Ireland without mishap.

"We were about 800 miles out," he said. "The weather was very bad and the clouds very high. Several times we tried to clear the filter by making sharp downward glides but always without success and this meant losing altitude at each attempt. When we climbed again the water boiled badly."

"Finally when we were 12-15 hours out from New Foundland we came to clouds about 15,000 feet high and very black—almost impossible to fly through. Each time we tried to climb about them we boiled badly so I decided to go beneath them. Coming down to about 6,000 feet we found it blacker than ever. Eventually I got to 10,000 feet above the water before we could see to fly. We started on our course again with the sun just getting up, but could not keep the temperature below boiling. Then we decided to play for safety."

"We began zigzagging back and forth, hoping to catch sight of some vessel. The wind was blowing from the northeast at half a gale. At last I sighted a ship close to us on our port bow. We were both in the fog with clouds low and were almost on top of the ship before we saw her."

"We flew alongside the ship at an altitude of 400 feet, fired three distress signals and began flying back and forth across her bow. Finally some of her crew came on deck and signalled that they understood us. We went on ahead about two miles and landed in front of her, making good landing in spite of rough water."

"We pulled down our own little boat and made ready to take to her in case the biplane began sinking. The waves were running twelve feet high and breaking over both of us, but our life saving suits kept us dry."

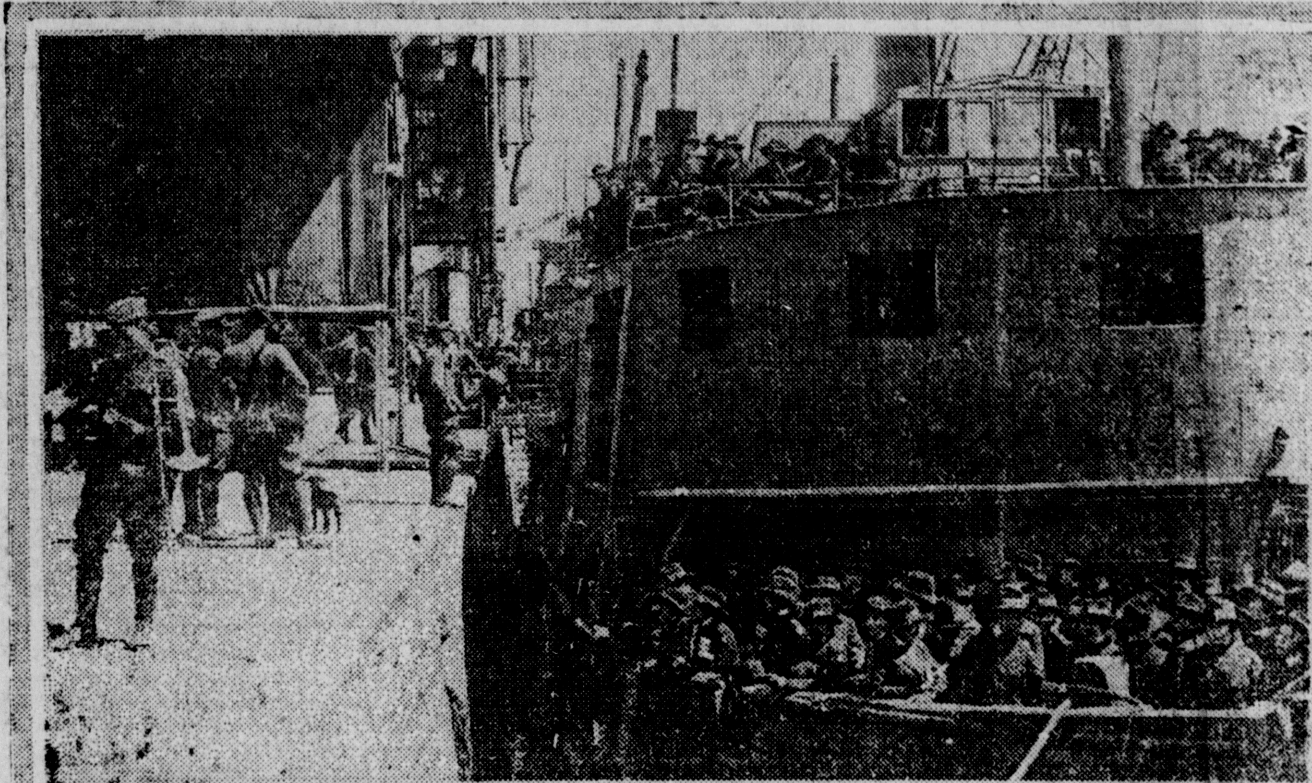

"The Mary drew up to within 200 yards of us and for an hour and a half we watched her crew trying to put over a life boat. When they finally got her launched they had difficulty making their way to us, but after a fight with the waves, reached the plane and took us off. We were without boots or caps when we got into the life boats and Grieve was without his coat. We also lost a lot of valuable instruments and some mail we were carrying to England from New Foundland."

LIQUOR LICENSE
BOARD WILL STAY
ON JOB IN OHIO

Columbus, May 27.—Unless State Auditor Donahey refuses to honor the vouchers of liquor license inspectors, the state liquor license board will continue to do business and look after law violations. This is the announcement today, despite the fact that Attorney General Price held that the liquor license commission "did" last midnight when the state went dry officially by vote of the people.

Former Attorney General Hogan has held that notwithstanding the state has gone dry the license commission is still in existence until such a time as the legislature enacts a measure putting it out of business, notwithstanding the fact that the coming of state wide prohibition makes it impossible to issue liquor licenses under the license law. Hogan will undoubtedly represent the state board in this connection, it is said today.

RETURNING ARMY NURSES GIVEN GREAT SEND-OFF AT BREST.

American nurses leave for home. Nurses of the American Expeditionary Forces photographed on the deck of a ferry which was to carry them from the dock at Brest to a home-going liner lying in the harbor. The departing nurses were given a royal send-off. Army bands played a loud farewell and thousands of Dugboys cheered them on their way.

AUSTRIAN PEACE
TERMS ARE NOW
ALMOST READY

Vienna, May 27.—The Austrian peace terms have been virtually completed and will be wirelessly here in time for publication Thursday, said advices received here today.

The agitation against the financial terms continues. Austrian financiers declare that the nation, as now constituted, is able to pay only one fourth of its existing indebtedness, not counting war indemnities. They declare that unless the new states formed from the old Austrian empire are compelled to stand three fourths of Austria's war debt, Austria's coupons will not be paid and financial chaos will be followed by a great social upheaval.

OWNER OF "UNDER-GROUND" RAILWAY STATION IS DEAD

Cleveland, O., May 27.—Eli Heald, 91, whose farm home prior to the civil war was one of the important "underground railroad stations" for slaves escaping northward, is dead at the home of his son here. He was a friend of John Brown, noted abolitionist.

AMERICAN GENERALS RECALL-ED TO COBLENZ.

Above: Lieut. General Liggett. Below: Major General Hines.

Lieutenant General Hunter Liggett, commander of the American Army of Occupation, and Major General John Hines, commander of the Third Corps, who were on their way to London, have been recalled to Coblenz by orders from American General Headquarters, according to a dispatch from Coblenz. Motor trucks have moved to the bridgehead area of the Rhine, in preparation for an advance should the occasion arise.

BERNSTORFF MAY BE ELECTED FIRST
GERMAN PRESIDENT

Berlin, May 27.—Count Von Bernstorff, former German ambassador to the United States, may be the next president of Germany. Frohner Hartmann, member of the executive committee of the German Democratic party, told me today.

"Von Bernstorff would stand as good a chance of being elected as any one if we had an election now," said Richtofen, who was secretary of the German embassy in Washington from 1908 to 1910, "but it probably will be some years before the German people again vote for national representatives."

"Our party does not want an election now," he continued. "If we had a national election today we would lose to the conservatives because we are represented in the present cabinet which is generally unpopular. I think our party is strong enough to prevent new elections. Our plan is to have the present national assembly continue as the first reichstag under the new constitution. The proposal to submit this plan to a plebiscite in July or August and thus make the proposition legal. This would postpone the elections for another three years. By that time we hope to be the dominant political party in Germany."

"Our party is composed chiefly of the lower bourgeois and small farmers. Individually they may long for the days of a monarchy and kaiserdom when conditions are more settled. But in three years they will have become so used to the republic that they will want no other form of government."

"We want to maintain the social democrats in power just now because they are the bulwark between the bourgeois parties and the radicals. If we ourselves oppose the radicals activity we would be killed off. The social democrats are the only ones to do it and therefore we must help them preserve their strength. Like the other bourgeois parties we stand for private ownership. On most other matters we agree except that we are rather more conservative than the social democrats in the practical application of our common policies."

PUBLIC OPINION
WILL FORCE HUNS
TO SIGN TREATY

Geneva, May 27.—Both Germany and Austria probably will be compelled to sign the peace treaty by force of public opinion, according to travelers arriving at the Swiss border from both countries today.

German arrivals declare that "while the government is bluffing," the German people are demanding peace and bread.

"Down with Ebert, Scheidemann and Noske," is the keynote of the comment in Berlin, travelers say.

PIONEER IS DEAD.

Cleveland, O., May 27.—Ambrose M. Hobbs, 82, a pioneer in the iron and steel industry of Ohio and a civil war veteran, is dead at his home here.

MEMORIAL DAY NOTICE.

The Xenia postoffice will be closed all day Friday, May 30, in observance of Memorial day. Neither city nor rural carriers will make deliveries. Mail will be dispatched as usual.

WANT TO STOP FIGHT.

Columbus, May 27.—Rep. Dunn, of Wood county, has introduced a bill which will put the decision as to the holding of the Willard-Dempsey championship fight in Toledo, July 4, up to Governor Cox.

SENATOR SAYS U.S.
SHOULD STEER CLEAR
OF ALL ALLIANCES

Washington, May 24.—"America should stand aloof from entangling alliances. It cannot be possible for our people to mingle with the people there on equal terms—they do not think like we do. It seems a pity that the peace terms have not been agreed upon earlier. The failure to agree upon the terms of peace leaves a measure of doubt in the minds of all the people abroad," declared Rep. Madden, Illinois, during a speech in the house yesterday afternoon.

Madden had reviewed the story of America's participation in the war and concluded with a reference to the peace terms. "Invisible border lines make it necessary for the people's abroad to be watchful of one another. They are suspicious, one nation of another. You cannot make them otherwise. Their internal political hatreds are unchangeable," he commented.

"The league of nations which provides, if it should be approved here, for the defense of the political integrity and geographical boundaries of foreign nations, is likely to lead us into trouble. The nations that are being created are now at war with each other. They are likely to continue at war. They are fighting every day. It seems impossible to reconcile the conditions between them. The Balkan states must be recognized as the cradle of wars. Nobody could maintain their political integrity or geographical boundaries. My judgment is that America should not send her boys to foreign territory for the purpose of maintaining foreign political integrity."

YANKS ON WAY OUT OF THE FROZEN NORTH

Washington, May 27.—Withdrawal of the American forces from Archangel is actually under way, according to cable advices to the war department today, which stated that all members of the 339th infantry were awaiting evacuation.

The cablegram also said that the return of individual soldiers as casualties, in accordance with a recent request of the department, would not expedite the discharge of such casualties since the units would arrive at home before these individuals.

CAPTIVATED NEW YORK AS "WAR HERO," WON HEART OF HEIRESS, RETURNS TO FORMER JOB AS WAITER

New York, May 27.—The story of how a handsome "titled foreigner" captivated New York society, won the heart of one of the most prominent heiresses of the metropolis and then turned out to be a waiter in a restaurant in a nearby city has set the gossip of the old "400" agog, and everyone is trying to guess the identity of the heiress.

The "titled foreigner" appeared quietly in social circles here at a time when foreign war heroes were being lionized. He was taken up not only by New York society but by exclusive circles in other cities. He displayed remarkable knowledge of all sorts of viands, and generally made himself so agreeable that he was showered with invitations to attend smart dances and dinners.

Somewhat the word got around that he possessed lovely castles resting upon high hills that surveyed his lordly possessions and that report didn't detract from the interest society took in him. Mothers with eligible daughters tried to snare him for their "sets" and quite a lively little contest for the "titled foreigner" was on when his engagement to an heiress prominent here and at Newport was announced.

The "titled foreigner" then left New York, presumably to go aboard to look after his castles. It was said that he would return shortly and that the wedding would occur this summer.

OFFICIAL FLYING TIME
OF NC 4.

The NC 4 left rockaway Beach, L. I., on May 8, but started from Trepassey on the actual flight across the Atlantic at 6:07 p. m. New York time, May 16, arriving at the Azores the following day. Her official flying time is as follows:

Rockaway to Halifax (540 miles) 7 hours, 47 minutes.
Halifax to Trepassey (460 miles) 8 hours and 59 minutes.
Trepassey to Horta, Azores, (1,200 miles) 15 hours, 18 minutes.

Horta to Ponta Del Gada (150 miles) 1 hour 44 minutes

If she reaches Lisbon before 4 o'clock this afternoon, New York time, the NC will have crossed the Atlantic in less than 27 hours actual flying. The Mauretania made the best record of any steamer when she crossed in four days, 17 hours and six minutes on Feb. 20, 1909.

ORDER THE POLES

Vienna, May 27.—It is reported here that the allies have ordered the Poles to evacuate Boryslav, in Galicia within 24 hours.

ANOTHER REVOLT

Geneva, May 27.—The German population of East Hungary is in revolt against the rule of Bela Kun and has been joined by 3,000 armed peasants. The Hungarian leaders influence is diminishing daily.

PRESIDENT WILSON SPEAKS IN PARIS

Paris, May 27.—President Wilson, in an address here last night in which he touched briefly upon the league of nations and the opposition he had encountered in the United States to some of his plans, urged all Americans to unite and "set an example" to the people of other nations. The President was the principal speaker at a dinner given in honor of President Elect Pessoa of Brazil. In the course of his remarks he let drop a statement that was accepted by some as an announcement that he would not again be a candidate for the presidency when he said, "it is delightful for me to know my presidency is not ahead of me."

"We among other friends of liberty, are asking the world to unite in the interests of brotherhood and mutual service and the genuine advancement of individual and corporate liberty throughout the world," said President Wilson. Therefore we must set the example."

PEACE LEAGUE SPECIAL COMING

Columbus, May 27.—Aboard the "peace league special" due here early this afternoon will be former President William H. Taft, Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, A. Lawrence Howell and others. They will speak at Memorial Hall at 2 and 8 p. m. in the interest of the league for the enforcement of peace.

DEFEAT BORAH MOTION

Washington, May 27.—By a vote of 34 to 8, an open republican conference today defeated Senator Borah's motion to strike out the name of Senator Penrose, of Pennsylvania, as chairman of the senate finance committee.

AMERICAN SEAPLANE IS NEARING END OF LAST
LEG OF OVERSEAS TRIP

Ponta Del Gada, Azores, May 27.—Carrying America's hopes for success in the trans-Atlantic flight, the seaplane NC-4 winged away from here at 6:18 New York time this morning on the last leg of the trip across the ocean.

Lieut. Commander Read said before the start that he expected to reach Lisbon, Portugal, before 4 o'clock this afternoon, New York time, completing the flight across the Atlantic. The distance from Ponta Del Gada to Lisbon is approximately 300 nautical miles.

If the NC-4 flies to Portugal without mishap she will continue to Plymouth, England.

Washington, May 27.—With her jump from Ponta Del Gada to Lisbon more than one fourth completed, the NC-4 passed over station No. 5, about 250 nautical miles out, at 9:35 Washington time, according to radio dispatch to the navy department. The 250 miles were made in three hours and 17 minutes.

Thirty minutes later she passed over station No. 6.

Washington, May 27.—Continuing to reel off 33 land miles an hour, the NC-4 passed station No. 3, 450 miles out at 12:18 p. m., Washington time, the navy department was informed by radio this afternoon.

Commander Read covered the first four hundred nautical miles in five hours, averaging 80 miles an hour. This is equivalent to an average of about 93 land miles an hour.

Lisbon, May 27.—A shrieking of sirens, led by the U. S. Cruiser Rochester, announced shortly before noon that Lieut. Commander A. C. Read had left Ponta Del Gada in the American seaplane NC 4 on the 800 mile leg of his trans-Atlantic air journey from the Azores to Lisbon.

Intense excitement followed for the Portuguese had been looking forward for many days to this historic event. Many bets had been laid on the length of time it would require to make the flight and when the jump off would take place at Ponta Del Gada. The city was in gala attire with American flags flying from many of the buildings.

Along the harbor front crowds began to gather before the last wail of sirens died away.

It was planned to blow a second blast one hour before the intrepid American naval flyer was due to land in the harbor and this was to be the signal for the president of the republic to be ready to bestow a medal upon Lieut. Commander Read.

Lisbon feels highly honored that the United States navy chose this city as one of the stopping places on the long seaplane flight from New Foundland to England.

Lieut. Commander Read plans to rest here and await favorable weather before starting on the last leg of his long flight to Plymouth, England. He will be taken on board the cruiser Rochester immediately following his arrival but will leave at the earliest opportunity.

Never in history will a more tumultuous welcome be tendered an American in Lisbon.

MORE INDICTMENTS ARE EXPECTED

Cleveland, May 27.—The operations of professional bondsmen are to be probed by the special crime investigating grand jury. A large number of witnesses will likely be called in connection with a phase of the jury's investigation.

Attorney General Price was expected to reach here today to resume direction of the probe carried on in his absence by Special Prosecutors Day and Wilkin and assistant Attorney General Eagleson.

It was considered a possibility that further indictments may be returned this week by the jury. To date four indictments, all charging perjury have been handed down by the jury.

COMMANDER READ

Lieutenant Commander A. C. Read in the American NC-4 is now nearing the end of the last leg of his journey across the Atlantic. He hopped off early this morning from the Azores and if all goes well will land at Lisbon about 4 o'clock New York time. At noon the NC-4 was roaring along in fine shape and the indications were that she would safely complete her history making trip.

ITALIAN ENVOYS AGAIN THREATEN TO TIE UP PEACE PROCEEDINGS

BY JOHN T. PARKERSON.

Paris, May 27.—The Italian envoys are again threatening to hold up the peace proceedings unless the Adriatic problems are definitely settled in the Austrian treaty, it is understood today.

While it is regarded as virtually certain that the Italians will sign the German treaty it is learned from French official circles Premier Orlando and his colleagues are insisting that the Austrian treaty dispose of Fiume and the Dalmatian coast, otherwise they will refuse to sign.

The method of the Italians in landing troops in Turkey without consulting the allied and associated governments also caused some anxiety. The latest Italian act in occupying Siozia (Asia Minor) if followed up at one or two points would give the Italians virtual control of the coast in the vicinity of Smyrna.

In the meantime the Turks are making protests to the conference against the landing of Greek troops at Smyrna and are asking that allied forces be sent to avoid bloodshed.

(A previous report stated that French and British troops had been landed at Smyrna in addition to the Greeks, but that the Greeks were occupying the main portion of the city.)

The Russian situation continues uncertain as to military movements. Latest reports said that Admiral Kolchak's Siberian troops were retreating while the Finns and allied forces were advancing on Petrograd and were about 14 miles from the city.

The American delegates are plainly disappointed over the further indefinite delay in getting the Austrian peace treaty ready.

SALVATION ARMY DRIVE IS GOING VERY SLOWLY HERE

With the period set for the Salvation Army campaign already past, Xenia and Greene county has subscribed but a small fraction of its small enough quota of $5,000.

Although the soldiers from overseas have praised the name of the Salvation Army with tears in their eyes, although it is generally recognized as the most popular organization that worked with the soldiers overseas, still Greene county has not subscribed its quota in the drive that is going on here.

Solicitors Monday, however, found a ready response to their efforts, and while some did not give much, yet all called upon contributed something to the cause. The general tendency to quit trying now that the war has been won, has affected local people to the disadvantage of the campaign workers, who are hoping for as ready a response to the summons as if the war were still going on.

For the Salvation Army did not quit with the signing of the armistice. An old organization, it has already reverted to its activities at home, and this "Home Service Fund" is to help it establish itself again so that it may carry on its great social work in this country.

This appeal is one that should not go unheeded. It is helping a cause, that which none worthier has asked for assistance.

The campaign here will be extended for a few days in an effort to meet the quota and you will be called upon at that time, if you have not already been solicited, to show in a material way just how much you appreciate the Salvation Army.

Be ready for the solicitor when he comes.

BIJOU

"Redhead," by Henry Payson Dowst, featuring Alice Brady, is the Select Pictures offering for Wednesday at the Bijou Theater.

"Redhead" is the story of Dazie, alias "Redhead" who married Matthew Thurlow, a rich, young man-about-town, when both are under the influence of liquor. They both regret it the following morning, but she decides that as long as they are married she will make a man of him. The story is a splendid one full of love and charm and holds your interest to the final fade-out.

ORPHIUM

Where there is a forgotten defeat in the staircase the stairs will creak. This is the keynote of "Creaking Stairs" a Rupert Julian story produced by Universal with Mary MacLaren in the lead, which appears at the Orphium Theater Wednesday.

Wednesday will also see the first episode of the new Orphium Serial, "The Red Glove," a Universal offering featuring Alfred Allen, Marie Walcamp, Andrew Waldron, Thomas Lingham, Pat O'Malley, Evelyn Selbie, Edgar Allen and Leon de la Mothe. The first episode is called "The Pool of Mystery."

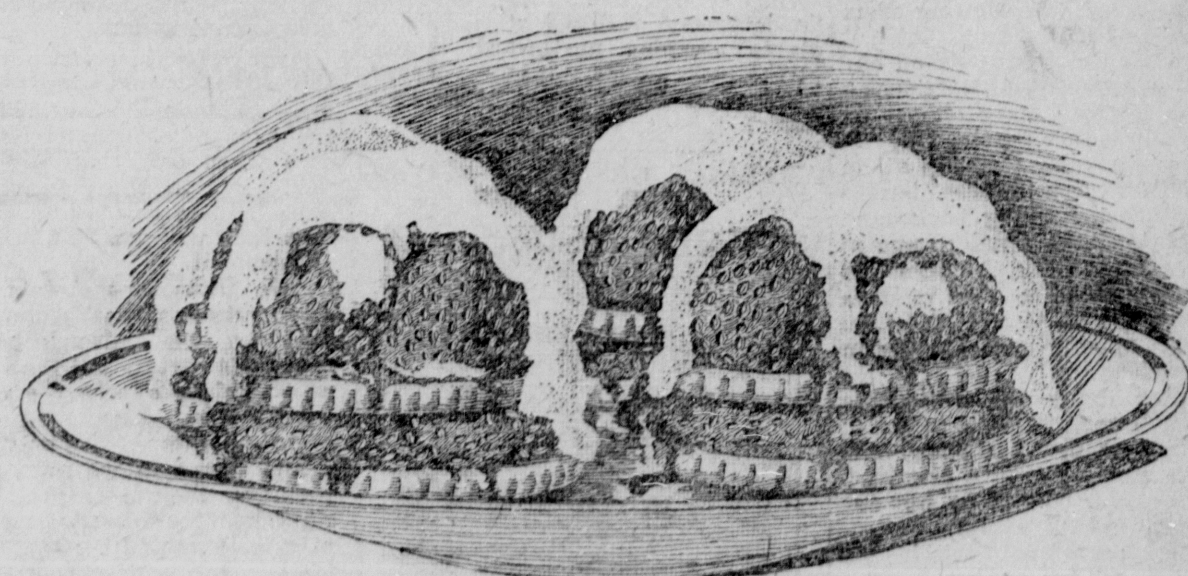

EAST END NEWS

Mrs. Alice Johnson who resided at No. 1024 East Church street, died Sunday night at 12 o'clock. She had been ill since last October, being first taken with pneumonia. She was not able to regain her strength although her family thought that she was improving slowly. She has resided in Xenia since April, 1913, and came here from Dayton. She was born in Winchester, Ky., and would have been about 69 years old next August. Her husband, French Johnson, a civil war veteran, survives her. Beside her husband, she leaves four children, two sons and two daughters, and one grand son, as follows: Mrs. Lilla B. Miller, Dayton; Thomas Jones, of Danville, Ill.; and Felix Jones and Mrs. Fannie McDonald, both of Xenia and Wm. J. Miller of Dayton. She was a member of Third M. E. Church. The funeral will be held at the house Wednesday afternoon at 2:30. Daniel's Post No. 500 G. A. R., invites the veterans of the World War and of the Spanish-American war to join in with them in the Memorial Day parade and all of the ceremonies in observance of the same. They also invite the Women's Relief Corps, the school and all civic and fraternal bodies to take part in the parade.

In answer to several inquiries we wish to announce that tickets for Dr. DuBois' lecture at the Opera House, tomorrow evening, can be reserved free of charge at Clark's grocery. Oscar W. Price, Chairman Committee.

WHY GOBS ARE GOBS

"Why even the chewing tobacco you are masticating" said the Navy man to our representative. "was originated in the Navy, did you know that? Yep and that's how they came by the name of Gobs. You see, on board ship there is a smoking lamp which burns for a few hours in the morning, at noon, and a couple hours at night. Well if they couldn't smoke they had to do something, so at first they tried soke leather, but that lacked the flavor, then they tried rope, but still no satisfaction. Then they hit on tar, or oakum, which they used to fill the cracks of the vessels of the old days, and this filled the bill. He was then called a Jack Tar. That was a long time ago, before the day of Raleigh, the fellow who was smoking his pipe who discovered that tobacco was good to chew. When his servant threw the water on him he swallowed the pipe, and the tobacco stuck in his throat. That must have been the way. Well anyhow the Sailors have been seen since time immemorial with a gob in their face, and that's how it was." But our representative was gone before he heard the rest of it.

ALLEGES HOGS HAD
CHOLERA WHEN SOLD

Alleging that hogs which he bought at a sale of livestock conducted by the defendant were infected with cholera, J. E. Kelly has brought suit against W. F. Trader as executor of the estate of Anna E. McDonald to recover $1,349 damages, and interest at 6 per cent.

The plaintiff says that the hogs were bought for feeding and fattening and were represented to be sound, but that within twenty-four hours after he bought them some of them showed signs of illness, and within a few days many of them died, and he was obliged to sell the others as sick hogs, at a great loss.

He further complains that the healthy hogs already on his farm were infected with cholera by the bunch which he bought at the sale, that 21 of them died, and he sold 12 as sick hogs. Smith and Smith, attorneys.

GETS $400 AND DOESN'T WANT RAISE

Boston, May 27.—Interest in the Boston Museum of Fine Arts has mounted apace because of Hanford L. Story. He is a rare gentleman. He distinctly refuses an increase in salary. He is a city employee. Other city employees cannot understand it.

He is a clerk to the Boston Art Commission at $400 a year. A budget session of the City Council developed the startling, almost disquieting, information to the councilors that Mr. Story is perfectly satisfied with $400. It was explained that Mr. Story in his other capacity of registrar of the Museum of Fine Arts receives additional salary of from $800 to $900.

Even so, why refuse more money, especially city money? That's what worries the political mind.

Carrying Cocoa to the East.

An interesting spectacle in the African Gold Coast country is the transport of cocoa, the bulk of the inland produce being carried by porters to the railway. Sometimes the roadways as far as the eye can see are one long line of cocoa bags on the heads of hundreds of carriers.

Splendid Way To Reduce Your Weight

There is perhaps no one thing that so plainly shows the passing of our youth as the horrible tendency to put on too much weight after we have reached the age of 25 or 30 years. However young our faces may appear, the sagging, flabby figure, and forty inch waist "gives us away."

The cause of this over stoutness is that our stomachs convert the food we eat into fat, because there is not enough oxygen in the blood to produce a proper combustion to destroy the excess fatty tissue. Fat people will be pleased to learn of a simple home method that is wonderfully efficient in reducing weight, quickly and easily without a strenuous exercise. Go to any drug store and get a box of Phynola, take five grains after each meal and at bed time. This treatment will often give quick relief from overburdening fat. Phynola taken at meal time assists the stomach in giving you the benefit of the food you eat; at the same time dissolves the fatty tissue from any part of the body where there is excessive fat. By this method many have reduced their weight a pound a day and there is no flabbiness left. Sayre & Hemphill can supply you with the genuine Phynola at a small cost.

GREAT INCREASE IN OPERATING EXPENSE OF TELEPHONE LINES

The following letter signed by the presidents of the American Telephone and Telephone Company and the U. S. Independent Telephone Association has been received by Harley Cleaver, manager of the Xenia branch of the Bell Telephone Company in which the statement is made that the wage increase in the telephone and telegraph systems of the country has been $20,000,000 since the government took them over. The letter follows:

Washington, D. C., May 19, 1919.
To the Members of the Senate and House of Representatives:

On midnight July 31, 1918, under the authority of Congress for war purposes, the President took supervision, possession, control, and operation of the telephone systems of the country and has since operated them. The war has practically ceased. The public press is strongly demanding, the general public and the owners of the telephone properties are urging, that they be returned as speedily as possible, that former conditions may be restored and more satisfactory service be afforded. The President and the Postmaster General have announced that this will be done as soon as adequate arrangements be provided for receiving and advantageously operating them. It remains only for Congress to enact such legislation as speedily as possible.

The expenses of these systems have largely increased during the past year, for wages alone at the rate of more than $20,000,000 per annum. This was inevitable and necessary by reason of larger proportional increases by the Railroads and industries of the country. The revenues are inadequate to care for such increases, and the deficit of the Government on that account to date is large and steadily increasing. The Postmaster General ordered that steps be taken to secure adequate revenues, but contentions with the regulatory authorities of the States, not yet settled, have prevented such adjustments.

If such conditions continue, necessarily the credit of the operating companies will be impaired, proper expenses cannot be met, the best operating forces cannot be retained, needed extension and satisfactory service cannot be provided. A deterioration will ensue which in some localities may threaten a recurrence to public ownership or operation in order to care, even inadequately, for public needs. By prompt action Congress can prevent this contingency.

Just and speedy settlements should be made for all properties taken under the existing law, that such balances now in the possession of the Government may be restored to assist in the rebuilding and extension of the various systems for better public use. The conditions and regulation of operation should be clearly defined so as to permit the companies to re-establish and maintain a satisfactory service with reasonable rates without discrimination and procure the benefits of legitimate competition. The principal operating companies of the United States are vitally interested in co-operating with Congress and the officials of the Government to accomplish these results.

President American Telephone and Telegraph Co.

The Right Way—Spring Medicine
That Begins and Ends Right.

So generally successful is Hood's Sarsaparilla as a Spring medicine, and in all ailments of the blood, stomach, liver and kidneys, that it may truly be said to give universal satisfaction. It has been before the public for nearly 50 years, and today has the largest sale of any sarsaparilla. Nothing under the sun could keep up this great demand but phenomenal efficiency and loyal support by the people of a good medicine.

It thoroughly renovates the blood, adds red corpuscles, creates an appetite, tones the stomach, aids digestion, perfects assimilation, secures 100 per cent. benefit of the food you eat.

Hood's Sarsaparilla represents the wisdom of one of the best physicians Boston ever had, combined with the practical experience of a pharmacist who has been putting up prescriptions for more than 50 years.

HENRY FORD'S EXTRAORDINARY OFFER.

Henry Ford is at Mt. Clemens, Mich., prosecuting his libel suit for a million dollars damages against the Chicago Tribune for having called him an Anarchist. He is a wonderful man. By intensive "system" he manufactures we are afraid to say how many automobiles a minute for fear of getting the number too low. And incidentally, while paying his men the highest wages, and selling his machines at the lowest prices, has made himself a multi-millionaire. If that doesn't make a wonderful man, we would like to know what does.

Besides, he has done a good many expressly wonderful things—including his ship to Europe to stop the war. His intentions were all right, but the job was a little too big for even Henry Ford.

We have never heard of any one doubting Mr. Ford's word. That being so, he now has, in embargo done another most wonderful thing. He has agreed to employ all the men who were crippled while fighting for their country in the late war. Being a man of his word, this is certainly a most extraordinary offer.

Whatever may have been the evidence on which the Chicago Tribune based its charge that he is an Anarchist, this above named offer shows the spirit of patriotism in the highest degree. He asks no credit for the offer, but in the spirit of the old saying that we "must give the devil his due," however off color as to loyalty any of his words or acts have been, he is certainly entitled to credit in this matter.

He said:
"I will undertake to employ all the men who were crippled while serving with the American forces. I will employ 1000 immediately and as many as 9000 others as soon as possible."

He said there was nothing of a charitable or philanthropic nature in his offer. He described it as a "pure business proposition," and continued.

"We are prosperous mainly because we make those about us prosperous. We can take these maimed soldiers and make them prosperous, for we will give them good wages. No longer will they be crippled. They will be in a position to produce for us by producing for themselves. No matter how maimed a soldier is, something can be done for him by showing him how to do for himself."

"I saw a one-armed man in our organization who was an expert at a certain switchboard which governed heat control for many furnaces. I asked him how he got alone and he replied:

"Fine, but I could do something else, too."

"I have been asked concerning the fine caliber of many of our employees and how I picked them. We do not pick them. We develop them. Or rather, they develop themselves. If men are a trifle out of the beaten track of conventional manners or morals, they can, as a rule, be reformed through themselves and it the light of their own production and chances.

"There are so many things in the world to be done that such a thing as a man being crippled in war cannot and must not be a handicap to him. "Soldiers can work on tractors. If an arm is missing a hook can be adjusted to the steering wheel. If both arms are gone a strap arrangement can be adjusted to the shoulders for the purpose. Artificial legs can be used efficiently on pedals."

DEMOCRATIC MOVE AGAINST "HOME INDUSTRY."

The Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce has asked the support of the National Association of Manufacturers to back it in a protest against the reported action of Walker D. Hines, director general of railroads, in reducing freight rates on goods imported from Japan. The reductions are to range from ten to twenty-five per cent from the Pacific coast ports to the East in an effort to increase importations, and are to apply on seventy different classes of merchandise and manufactured articles. The executive committee of the Chamber of Commerce, in its letter to the association, says in part:

"We are particularly interested in the proposed reductions on chinaware, glassware, toys and dry goods, as these industries give employment to great numbers of American workmen."

"It is impossible to compete with Japanese labor. A glass manufacturer says that, while the unions in most glass houses in this country permit employees to work only eight hours, most of the employees were on a shift or task duty, whereby they would work only six hours and get paid for eight hours at $1 an hour. In Japan the same class of workers, working fifteen hours a day, receive from fifteen to forty cents an hour, according to their skill."

"Similar conditions extend to the toy and brass novelty industries in this country."

"At the present time," it continues, "when the government is imploring manufacturers to run their factories full time, to build new factories, to do all they can to give employment, what is the sense of handicapping American manufacturers by purposely reducing freight rates on Japanese goods to stimulate their importation? And what justice is it to American labor, which is the best paid in the world, for our own government to try to stimulate the substitution of Japanese for our labor?"

LARGE DENOMINATION SAVING STAMPS ARE TO BE PUT ON SALE

War saving stamps of one hundred dollar and one thousand dollar denomination have been engraved and will be on sale soon, according to a telegram received by Greene County War Stamp Chairman, M. J. Hartley, from H. P. Wolfe, state director. The telegram reads:

"Telegram received today from Washington advises that the one thousand and one hundred dollar savings certificate have been engraved and regulations are in course of preparation with announcement of date of sale very soon. War Savings Stamps of these denominations and in one piece to be sold on the price basis of War Savings Stamps will meet demand of larger investors and open up an even wider market for the world's best investment, thus enabling you to reach your quota early in the year. The Thrift and Five Dollar stamp will of course be continued as usual. Let's finish the job in June. Wolfe, Director."

THE PROMOTER'S WIFE

BY JANE PHELPS.

A DISRESSING INCIDENT CHAPTER XXVIII.

I was in a perfect fever of unrest, impatience, and something very like fear all the rest of that day, and the next. Neil had told us at breakfast that he would not dine at home. I wondered what I should tell his aunt to excuse my absence also when she knew I was not with him. But I had no excuse to make fortunately. Aunt developed a sick headache and went to bed about four o'clock.

I dressed as carefully as I ever had in my life. I knew Blanche Orton's fondness for dress, her exquisite, if sometimes bizarre taste. I would look as well as possible. I allowed myself just time to reach there by seven o'clock, as I judged that would be her dinner hour. I did not take the car, but walked to the corner and hailed a passing taxi. I would take no one, not even the chauffeur into my confidence.

As I rang the bell I trembled so I could scarcely stand. When the maid opened the door the sound of laughter and voices nearly caused me to turn and flee. But I had come for a purpose—to help Neil. Had it been for any other reason under the sun I could not have gone through with it. But the thought of Neil gave me courage.

"Go right up stairs and lay off your things," the maid said. She of course had not recognized me and thought me one of the invited guests.

I walked slowly up the stairs. I laid aside my cloak, then walked even more slowly down again. Blanche Orton came into the hall just as I reached it, and I immediately spoke to her:

"You will forgive me for intruding won't you Mrs. Orton?" I asked in my most gracious tones. "But I know Neil often comes to you for help in his business. I do so want to help him also, so as I knew you were to have a dinner tonight—a business dinner, I could not have intruded upon a social affair, I determined to come and ask you to give me a lesson in helping my husband. You see I was foolish. I did not care for some of the men he wished to entertain, so he did not compel me to receive them. I am sorry now. Will you help me retrieve my error?"

It was not at all what I had intended to say; not at all what I wanted to say. But the words seemed to come of their own volition.

Mrs. Orton had first looked surprised, then a look of something near chagrin crossed her face, then, to my surprise, one of pity. "I was totally unprepared for her answer: 'Indeed I will help you all I can! you are very brave to acknowledge your mistake. Don't let anyone know I did not invite you. I will say I telephoned you to join us.'"

As I followed her into the room where her guests were assembled, I thought of the old saying that 'there is some good in the worst of us.' She had risen to the occasion, and to my help wonderfully. She could make any explanation she saw fit of my presence. My greatest cause of embarrassment was gone—that it would be known that I had joined them without an invitation, and that Neil might think I was spying upon him.

"Ladies and gentlemen let me introduce Mrs. Forbes. Aren't you surprised Neil? I thought it was time your wife joined us and looked after you. You might get too fond of me you know." Her voice sounded a bit strained; her speech labored, and rather unlike her usual easy nonchalance. But no one seemed to notice, and altho Neil looked absolutely dumfounded he answered in a facetious manner, when she said, "You tell her who the people are Neil. She already knows Mr. Frederick I think." I had not noticed him until she spoke. In fact the room and everyone in it all save Neil was a blur. But as she mentioned Frederick's name a wave of gladness rushed over me. If he were there I should not be so afraid or so alone.

"I knew you would come," he said very low as he immediately crossed to me. "You intended to when you telephoned me."

"And you came because you knew I"—I stopped short for two reasons. One that I was taking a good deal for granted, and letting him see it. The other because Neil had joined us and was presenting Mr. Tearle, then Mr. Connor. Scott was not there, but Mr. Thompson came in later. These with two women, overdressed ordinary women who seemed ill at ease until after the wine was served, when they were very talkative and very gay. I never had met women of their type before and it was as hard, even harder to talk to them than to Tearle and Connor. But I had come to help Neil; so while refusing to take any wine, I chatted with each of them in turn until the conversation turned upon some mining proposition. Then I listened.

Tomorrow—Neil suggests that Barbara leave early.

Artistic Shop Signs.

Between Cuzco and Machu Picchu, in Peru, are quaint signs indicating what is sold in the Indian huts. A small bunch of wheat on the end of a pole indicates chicha—a native corn beer—for sale within. A green wreath means bread for sale, while a piece of white cloth indicates aguardiente, a powerful white rum.

Mrs. E. G. McKibben was a delegate from the U. P. Church to the Thirty-sixth Annual Convention of the Woman's General Missionary Society meeting at Cambridge, Ohio, May 16 to 20. Mrs. McKibben remained a week after the meeting to visit relatives.

Mr. Charles Mealy, of Quincy, Ill., who has not been here for fourteen years, is the guest of his mother and other friends for several days.

Mr. Norman Foster, who has just received his honorable discharge from Camp Sherman, is spending a few days here with old friends.

Mrs. Mary Libby, of Pittsburgh, Pa., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. A. S. Lewis.

The burial of Mrs. Mary Raney, of Xenia, was made in the Clifton cemetery Thursday afternoon. The Raney family were for many years prominent residents of this community and still own a farm near here.

Memorial Day services will be held in the Opera House, Friday morning, May 30th, at nine o'clock.

Dr. Francis L. Fox, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church of Springfield, Ohio, was the speaker at the Twenty-third Annual Reception of Clifton High School Alumni, Friday night, May 23rd. The music was in charge of Mr. Walter B. Corry. About seventy-five members and friends enjoyed the evening. The following officers were elected for the coming year: President, Wallace Edwards; vice president, Fred Estle; secretary, Fern Gerhardt; treasurer, Elden Corry.

A Woman's Message to Women

CINCINNATI, OHIO.
"When I received your generous trial treatment, I was run-down, almost a wreck, could scarcely stay up to do my work. I had little interest in life, was irritable beyond control; but believe me when I say your treatment gave relief at once, and now I feel like a new woman. The terrible pains in my side and the heavy dragging-down feeling are all gone. I honestly believe I was saved from an operation, as I was in terrible shape from not having proper care after confinement. I ordered six boxes of your treatment, and today I am a well woman, can do my work and enjoy myself. Words cannot express my gratitude. Use my letter wherever you wish, so I am convinced there is nothing in the world like the Opaline Treatment." MRS. CHARLES LENTZ, 816 Sheridan Street, DETROIT, MICH.

Only A Woman Knows A Woman's Trials And Understands Her Need of Sympathy and Help. That is why hundreds of women gladly testify to the value of Mrs. Summers' popular Opaline Home Treatment in relieving so much of the misery and suffering known only to womankind. READER, if you are troubled with some of those special ailments of women—SEND FOR A FREE TEN DAYS' TREATMENT with illustrated, descriptive copy of "Woman's Own Medical Advisor." Test Mrs. Summers' Opaline Remedy for yourself, in your home, without the knowledge or aid of anyone. You can then continue if you wish, at about 12c a week. For twenty-five years women reported it satisfactory, and often superior to vegetable tonics and compounds. Used by old and young and does not interfere with daily work. Write in confidence, as your letter is opened, read and answered by a woman. For the Free Trial, address, THE SUMMERS MEDICAL CO., Women's Dept. O, South Bend, Ind. When your boy comes back Mother's cooking will taste better than ever to him. And it will be a real pleasure for Mother to bake and cook with her new Detroit Vapor Oil Stove. It's so different from the ordinary oil stoves. Lights instantly and has no wicks of any kind, in fact it's just like a city gas range.

Detroit Vapor Oil Stoves

No Wicks—Light Instantly—Work Like Gas

Burns kerosene, gasoline or distillate—19 hours to a gallon. Heavy durable iron burners vaporize the oil into an intensely hot blue flame.

A Detroit Vapor Oil Stove is just the stove you need in your home. Its wonderful service and convenience is appreciated by the whole family.

More economical than gas, coal or wood.

We are demonstrating this stove every day. Call at our store any time and we will gladly show you how it works like gas.

Don't burn good fuel in a poor stove

It's a useless waste of good fuel and a needless extravagance to try to burn it in a poor stove. It is absolutely wrong to expect good food to supply energy, vitality, health and happiness if your stomach won't absorb and assimilate it. If you cannot eat with enjoyment, if your food does you no good, if food distresses rather than benefits, then you have indigestion or dyspepsia. The best remedy to use is PEP SINCO.

Ask your druggist—he sells and recommends Pepsinco.

"CAN I BE CURED?" SAYS THE SUFFERER

How often have you heard that sad cry from the victims of disease. Perhaps the disorder has gone too far for help, but oftener it is just in its first stages and the pains and aches are only nature's first cries for help. Do not despair. Find out the cause and give nature all the help you can and she will repay you with health. Look after the kidneys. The kidneys are the most overworked organs of the human body, and when they fail in their work of filtering and throwing off the poison that constantly accumulates in the system, everything goes wrong. GOLD MEDAL Harlem Oil Capsules will give almost immediate relief from kidney and bladder troubles and their kindred ailments. They will free your body from pain in short order. But be sure to get GOLD MEDAL. Look for the name on every box. In three sizes, sealed packages. Money refunded if they do not help you.

WHY DOES WILSON WEAR RED, WHITE AND BLUE SUSPENDERS

A fitting answer to the above might also be applied in answering the oft uttered query "Why does a sailor have thirteen buttons on the front of his trousers. To hold his trousers up, of course."

A sailor stationed at the navy recruiting office in the post office building informs us however that there is a more definite reason for this so-called unlucky number of buttons. Also he explains the presence of other marks and decoration which adorn the Blue-jackets' snappy uniform, and at last we are acquainted with the facts relating to the origin of those much discussed flappy loose bottom trousers.

Have you ever noticed the three stripes of white braid worn on the collar and cuffs of a sailor's blouse? These three stripes are symbolic of the three great naval battles which had so much to do with bringing the Civil War to an end and the two accompanying stars inside the three stripes on the collar represent the two great victories won inside the three days in which the fierce bombardment raged incessantly.

The thirteen buttons represent the original thirteen states. Now to explain the reason for the bell bottom trousers. Oft times in launching of surf boats and such small craft from the beach, the sailor must wade out into the water without time or opportunity to discard any part of his clothing—the loose bottom trousers can be easily and quickly rolled well above the knees, allowing him to wade out into the water without being drenched. Also in the event of falling overboard he has but to loosen them at the waist by giving a single jerk at the apron like front, then a few kicks with his feet and he swims out of them thereby relieving himself of considerable weight. The blue uniforms consume water like a sponge, as they are made from the very finest quality of flannel. The white uniform which is much lighter and is worn when ships are crossing in tropical water, is made from white bleached drill.

In years gone by the sailors made their own clothing from cloth they purchased ashore. But in the Navy today every recruit is furnished with a complete outfit of clothing, altered to fit his person correctly. This outfit is valued at more than one hundred dollars and is given free to every applicant upon his first enlistment in the U. S. Navy.

RHEUMATISM LEAVES YOU FOREVER

Deep Seated Uric Acid Deposits Are Dissolved and the Rheumatic Poison Starts to Leave the System Within Twenty-four Hours.

Every druggist in this county is authorized to say to every rheumatic sufferer in this vicinity that if two bottles of Allenru, the sure conqueror of rheumatism, does not stop all agony, reduce swollen joints and do away with even the slightest twinge of rheumatic pain, he will gladly return your money without comment. Allenru has been tried and tested for years, and really marvelous results have been accomplished in the most severe cases where the suffering and agony was intense and pitiable and where the patient was helpless. Allenru relieves at once. Immediately after you start it the good work begins. It searches out the uric acid deposits, dissolves the secretion and drives rheumatic poison out of your system through the kidneys and bowels.

Previous how quickly it acts. Blisters relief often comes in two days, and even in the most stubborn cases the most painful aches disappear in a few days.

Mr. James H. Allen, the discoverer of Allenru, who for many years suffered the tortments of acute rheumatism, desires all sufferers to know that he does not want a cent of anyone's money unless Allenru decisively conquers this worst of all diseases and he has instructed Sayre & Hemphill to guarantee it in every instance. MANY XENIANS AT S. S. CONVENTION

Many Xenia people are attending the Greene county Sunday School convention, which is being held today at the Presbyterian church in Yellow Springs. Marion Lawrence, of Chicago, secretary of the International Sunday School Association, and a former resident of Yellow Springs, and A. T. Arnold, secretary of the State Sunday School Association, are the chief speakers.

The opening address of the convention was made at the forenoon session by Secretary Arnold, his theme being, "Our Sunday School Association and the Denominations." In the afternoon Mr. Lawrence gives an address. The evening session will be the most interesting of the day. Both Mr. Lawrence and Mr. Arnold give addresses, and the new officers will be installed. Present officers of the association are: President, Herbert Davis, Xenia; vice president, J. C. Williamson, Xenia; secretary G. W. Morrison, Xenia; treasurer, A. L. Fisher, Bow-ersville.

SURPRISE PARTY

Mr. L. B. Harner was delightfully surprised Wednesday evening in honor of his 59th birthday anniversary. Music and games were enjoyed; later refreshments were served. Those present were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. William Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. James Wolfe, daughter Dorothy, Mr. and Mrs. Dewitt Batdorf and family, Mrs. Charles Watts and family, Mrs. James Rue and family, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Harding and family, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Harner, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Miller, son Marvin, Mr. and Delmar Harner and family, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Linebaugh and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kyle and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kendig and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. THAT DULL ACHING

Don't worry and complain about a bad back. Get rid of it! For weak kidneys, lame and aching backs, your neighbors recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Read this statement:

Mrs. Josephine Laurens, 206 Hill St., Xenia, gave the following statement January 7, 1915: "When my back has been lame and I have had that dull, constant ache across my kidneys, I have used Doan's Kidney Pills. When my kidneys have been out of order, I have also been bothered with dizzy spells and spots before my eyes. Doan's Kidney Pills have always relieved those troubles, putting my kidneys in good order. I have bought Doan's at Donges' Drug Store."

OVER TWO YEARS LATER, on August 2, 1917, Mrs. Laurens said: "I still think a great deal of Doan's Kidney Pills because I have had wonderful results when I have used them."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Laurens had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y. adv

JAMESTOWN

The G. A. R. Memorial services at the M. E. church on Sunday were beautiful and impressive. The Rev. Willis A. Cooper gave an earnest patriotic address. His text was Philippians 3rd chapter, 13 and 14 verses. He spoke of the revolutionary war which was waged for rights, the Civil war for freedom and the late war for world-wide democracy. Then he divided correspondingly the life of man in three divisions: Youth, middle life and then the maturity of old age, which these veterans had attained, and made the application of the Christian warfare which now requires the same earnest, unflinching equipment that has been necessary for the triumph of all these principles for which battles have been fought and victories won. He thus paid a deserving tribute of bravery and heroism to the members of Strong Post. The choir of the church rendered a beautiful patriotic anthem. The congregation joined in singing "America," and "Onward Christian Soldiers."

Miss Lenore Feeser, a teacher in the Jamestown high school has returned to her home at Springfield. L. S. Farquhar, a Jamestown dry goods merchant, is in St. Louis this week attending the National Convention of Dry Goods Merchants.

Max Moon of Dayton, came over on Saturday to spend Sunday with the home folks.

The Rev. and Mrs. Willis A. Cooper have had for their guests, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Thorpe who are enroute to their home in Springfield, after spending the winter at Dade City, Fla.

Alfred Doster of Chicago, is making a short visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Doster. Mr. Doster has a fine position in Chicago with Armour's Laboratory and was sent to Columbus on business for the company and is returning home via Jamestown.

Mrs. George B. Oldham of Dayton, has been visiting with her daughter, Mrs. J. O. McDorman and her mother, Mrs. Clara Hatch.

Owing to the fact that flowers are scarce at this season of the year we are requested to ask the folks to save their flowers for Friday the 30th, Memorial day, and to please send them to the hall early on that morning.

The Bible school of the church of Christ, will observe "Children's Day" the second Sunday in June, instead of the first.

Mrs. W. F. Harper and daughter, Miss Mildred, have gone to Ada, to attend the commencement exercises of the class of '19 in which Howard Harper will graduate in pharmacy, being the youngest member of the class, only 19 years of age. His father W. F. Harper having graduated at the same university at the same age. Howard will remain in Jamestown this summer in his father's store and then take a position in some city.

Miss Una Catherine Sutton is in Dayton, visiting her uncle, Horace Yarnell and family.

Mr. Ervin Christy has been the guest of Springfield friends. The "bride's shower" which Miss Pearl Rakestraw gave for Miss Ruth Ferguson, bride-elect for June was a most delightful event. Miss Ferguson received a large number of handsome and useful gifts which will be used to fit out and adorn her new home in Wilmington. The hostess served delicious refreshments.

Miss Olivette McClain has returned home from Dayton, where she spent several days with her sister, Mrs. W. R. Bingham and family.

W. J. Galvin of Lima, was a week end visitor with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Galvin.

Mrs. A. L. Nichols of Grove City, is visiting her son Alfred Wathall and daughter, Mrs. W. O. Bowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Benton, Jasper, of Bowersville, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Christy.

The Rev. Frank C. Mitchell, a civil war veteran will deliver the memorial address on the afternoon of May 30, at the opera house. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Reeder will render two patriotic songs. The Bowersville band will furnish the music and they play splendidly.

DISCOURAGED

You have tried everything. It's the same old story. I hear it everyday. Your courage is gone, your faith is gone. The end would be gladly welcomed, but even that won't come. What would you give to be a well man—a well woman? What wouldn't you give? Worse cases, perhaps than yours are yielding as if by magic to its subtle power. Why not your case? I will leave it to your intelligence and good judgment. Slaves to mock or false modesty, you deserve to suffer. 95 per cent of the supposed incurable cases could be relieved physically and mentally, if they would only confess it to a friend, family, or better, a skilled physician. Don't argue I've tried electricity with no results—you may have no idea what an up-to-date electrically equipped institution really is.

IF I ONLY KNEW JUST WHAT AILED ME.

How often have you made this remark? Yet you continue to suffer, hesitating to seek aid because you consider that medical attention would be too expensive, or, perhaps, are you dissatisfied with past treatment.

Remember, all the wishing, hoping and praying never cured any real physical ailment. Then, why continue to grope in the dark, suffering pain, discomfort and dissatisfaction?

An X-ray examination will cost you out one dollar and is considered by the medical profession as one of the greatest aids to a correct diagnosis. If your case is not incurable you can be treated by one of the most completely equipped offices in the Middle West. 25 years' experience.

Omaha, Neb., May 27.—The Salvation Army Hotel here went out of existence May 1, after more than twenty years of existence on South Thirteenth street. Adjutant and Mrs. Dodds who have been here for years, say that during the twenty years they have furnished 250,000 beds, have given thousands of men jobs and aided them in other ways. The hotel for the past year has not been so well patronized due to prohibition in Nebraska, so "Mother" Dodd says. The owners have decided to remodel, and asked the Salvation Army a higher rate than they could afford to pay.

The Things About a Maxwell You Remember

1. It runs endless mileage.
2. It makes a dollar's worth of gas travel a mighty distance.
3. It shies at the repair shop.
4. Its tires seem to last forever.
5. Its upkeep never makes you poor.
6. It never wobbles or creaks in its old age.
7. If you keep two or three other cars you'll drive your Maxwell twice as often as any of the others.
8. It is never thirsty for oil.
9. Your neighbor and your banker respect your motor car judgment.
10. When you part with it, it's like parting with a life-long friend.

All ten of which are due to the 300,000-all-alike idea conceived at the time the Maxwell was originated, 5 years ago. The policy of doing one thing and doing it well over a period of years has no better example in business today than the product of the Maxwell Motor Company. It's the kind of car you never forget.

SENTENCES HIMSELF TO PAY $50 FINE

Chicago, May 27.—It's not often that a defendant is permitted to name his own fine and decide what shall be done with it—but such was the good fortune of Patrick O'Malley, politician and saloonist, recently arrested for accepting a bet on the races.

"What would you suggest in the way of a fine?" asked Judge Stewart.
"I'll donate $50 to the Salvation Army," offered O'Malley.
"So ordered," said the judge. Case dismissed.

BELGIAN CHILDREN ARE YEAR BEHIND

Knoxville, Tenn., May 27.—Every child in Belgium shows one year's undevelopment, both mentally and physically, announced Miss L. E.
Carter, principal of a school at Brussels in an address at the Southern Sociological congress here. Miss Carter spoke on child welfare. Sir Arthur Newdome represented the British Government in discussing the question, and Miss Julia Lathrop spoke for the United States Government.

Miss Carter in her address added:
"The boys have lost as much as three have lost on the average and the girls have lost as much as four pounds.
This is the exterior result only. We fear that the shocks of the war have worked on their nervous systems until it will be a serious detriment to them in later years. Add to this the abnormal atmosphere in which they lived for four years—the awful strain the uncertainty and the constant fear.
You people here must imagine, but we have actually seen it, how a child would feel to lie down to sleep every night without the knowledge of whether you would be awakened and told to get your bundle of clothes, always by your side, and leave your home as refugees. It was not possible to sleep soundly and well in such conditions, and under such a strain.
Then many of the children who were forced to leave their homes died on the march. They were actually frightened to death. Then at home the children could not help hearing the worry of their mothers. These brave women did not know how they were to live from one day to another, and this anxiety was naturally communicated to the children."

TWO HEADED SNAKE FOUND IN DRY STATE

Spokane, Wash., May 27.—This state is dry, but—

A two-headed snake, twenty-two inches long, able to crawl either way, with equal agility, is on display in a drug store window here.

One head is slightly smaller than the other, but each end is alike. At the largest part of the body it is about one and one-quarter inches in diameter.

The reptile was captured in the hills nearby. Its species is unknown.

WITH $35 CAPITAL MAKES $25,000

Aberdeen, Wash., May 27.—Six years ago Harry Druxman came here with a capital of $35.

By diligent efforts he acquired two general furnishing stores. Today he has $25,000 in the bank, having sold the stores, lives in a fine home on a hillside, and is devoting his time to building a new temple for the Moose Lodge in which he is active.

A fair return on money, say local bankers, who have watched Druxman's efforts.

THIEVES STEAL STOP AND GO SIGNS

Indianapolis, Ind., May 27.—Two Indianapolis traffic policemen came to town in the morning and found that some one had taken the standards on which the "Stop and Go" signs are fastened.

They were found that day fastened to the spire of the tower of the main building at Butler College. Undergraduates of Butler are suspected.

CHARMING MEETING OF JUNIOR WOMANS' MUSIC CLUB HELD

One of the most elaborate and entertaining meetings held by the Xenia Womans' Music Club, was that at which Miss Pauline Shoup was hostess
Monday afternoon at her home on E.
Main street. The afternoon was ideal, and members of the club were out in good numbers.

Mrs. J. D. Herron, wife of the rector of Christ church, read a very pleasing paper on American Composers. Mrs.
Herron is a very charming woman, and her paper was greatly enjoyed by the club members. American composers whom she mentioned and sketched their lives and works briefly, are: E.
A. McDowell, Sidney Homer, Raymond Huntington Woodman, Thurlow Lieur-ance, Reginald DeKoven, composer of light opera and songs, Charles Whitney Coombs, Ethelbert Woodbridge Nevin and Oely Speaks.

Mrs. W. H. McGervey and Mrs. Graham Bryson opened the program by singing a duet "A Song of Roses," by Sprouss. Miss Shoup gave the first piano number, "The Witches Dance," by McDowell. Mrs. Richard Bennington next sang a group of songs, "A Pocket Handkerchief to Him" by Sidney Homer, "A Birthday," R. Huntington Woodman, and "By the Waters of Minnetonka," Thurlow Lieurance.

Mrs. Arthur Perrill sang three numbers, "Poppies," Reginald DeKoven,
"Four Leaf Clover," C. Whitney
Coombs and "If I Were You," John Barnes Wells. Miss Margaret Fletcher played two piano selections by Rudolph Frml, "Evening Song," and
"Etude Fantastique."

"Elysium," by Speaks, and two songs by Sprouss, "The Wind" and "The Awakening," were sung by Mrs. Bryson. Mrs. Gowdy sang two of Ethelbert Nevin's compositions, "Oh That We Two Were Maying," and "In Winter I Get Up at Night," and concluded with "The Robin," by George Nevin.

Two numbers were played by Miss Ballantyne, "Prelude in C," by Archie
A. Mumma, of Dayton, and "Ye Old Fashioned Garden," Porter Steele.

"The Birth of Youth," and "I am Thy Harp," by Speaks, and "The Storm Evening" by Sidney Homer, were sung by Mrs. McGervey. The program closed with a song by Mrs.
Ruthrauff, McDowell's "Sea Pieces."

AFTER SIX MONTHS THE ANSWER CAME

About six months ago Clerk of the Courts George W. Sheets made inquiries of the war department concerning a report that Clyde J. Kussmaul, former Xenian, had been killed overseas.
He received an answer to the effect that the department would investigate.
After a short time it was learned that Mr. Kussmaul was alive and well and the incident was forgotten.

Mr. Sheets was astonished when he received yesterday a communication from the war department advising him that a cable had been received announcing that Private Clyde J. John Kussmaul was present for duty May 16.

IS RECOVERING FROM OPERATION

Mrs. William Lowen, of Portland, Oregon, who has been visiting relatives here for some time, is recovering from an operation she underwent at the McClellan hospital, Monday morning.

The operation was necessitated by an injury Mrs. Lowen received two weeks ago while on a Dayton & Xenia car. The car was crowded and Mrs.
Lowen, who was standing in the aisle, holding her baby in her arms, was crushed against a seat corner, rupturing a blood vessel.

Mrs. Lowen and her three children, her mother, Mrs. Anna Leashey and her brother Ray, came here from Portland several weeks ago and were planning to spend several months with local relatives, when the unfortunate accident occurred which marred their visit.

BOY DRAGGED TO DEATH BY MULE

Rome, Ga., May 27.—James Lewis, thirteen, living in the Ligon district, eleven miles from Rome, is dead as the result of being dragged by a mule for more than a mile. The lad was riding a plough mule from the field when the animal became frightened, throwing the boy, whose foot became entangled in the harness. His head was crushed to a pulp.

Silly Jamie.
The other day Jamie came running into the house crying at the top of his voice. He was followed by Jane, who explained by saying: "Mother,
I'm 'shamed of Jamie—he's so unbrave, owing 'cause a little dog chased him."

THE WAR'S GREATEST HERO PHOTOGRAPHED UPON HIS RE- TURN FROM FRANCE.

Sergeant Alvin C. York

Sergeant Alvin C. York, of Pal-Mall, Tennessee, the war's greatest hero, photographed upon his arrival in New York from France aboard the transport Leviathan. Sergeant York, in what is called the greatest individual feat of the war, killed twenty Germans and captured 132, including a major and several lieutenants, and disposed of thirty-five machine guns manned by the enemy. He completely broke up the counter-attack of a whole German battalion, thereby, according to General Pershing, saving the lives of many of his comrades.
He was an elder in a church opposed to war before the conflict in Europe, and says he accomplished his feats only "with the help of God." He is shown wearing the Congressional Medal of Honor and the French Croix de Guerre with Palm.

FIRST NO-GOSSIP LEAGUE FORMED

Northfield, Mass., May 27.—The first Anti-Gossiping League of the World has been organized in this beautiful village. A national No-Gossip Day is proposed.

The No-Gossip League is unique.
It has no constitution, no by-laws, no officers, no dues. Yet the founder and organizer, F. Ambler Welch, editor and publisher of the Northfield Press, sees a great future for the organization.

"Not that Northfield is more gos-sipy than any other town in the world," said he. "Gossip is an offspring of envy. It is natural for women to be envious but it is true that men are also moved that way on occasions."

"It occurs to me we should give our neighbors the benefit of the doubt."

"Why lift the eyebrow if a neighbor's wife has a new paradise plume —very likely it is an old one and was not smuggled."

"Why shrug one's shoulder if some bank official appears in a new motor car—very likely he mortgaged his house to get it instead of stealing the money from the bank."

Why look critically at your neighbor if he has a red nose—very likely it is from sunburn and not from tippling.

"We'll try to make this little town gossip free, and if the outside world wishes to take up the plan, I'm in favor of pushing it."

MISS HELEN SLATE BECOMES BRIDE OF LEWIS H. RECTOR

Miss Helen Gertrude Slate, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Slate of East Market street, became the bride of Lewis H. Rector Tuesday morning, the ceremony being performed by the Rev.
Albert Burke at the rectory of St.
Brigid's church at 8 o'clock.

The bride's brother and sister, John Slate and Miss Anna Slate, were the attendants. The bride was attired in a blue tailored suit with hat to match, and her sister also wore blue.

Following the service, Mr. and Mrs.
Rector left the city on a short honeymoon trip, and upon their return will be at home on the bride's father's farm on the New Jasper pike. Mrs.
Rector has been employed as an operator at the Bell Telephone exchange.
Mr. Rector has made his home with his brother, Henry Rector, on the Bickett road.

UNCONSCIOUS MAN PICKED UP IN ROAD

Thrown from his buggy, probably when it struck a bridge on the Columbus pike, John Myers of the Fair ground road was picked up in an unconscious condition near Wilberforce at 11 o'clock Monday night.

Two men who were passing the scene a short time before that discovered him lying in the road and the horse walking about. They moved Myers out of the road and hitched the horse and then notified Police Headquarters here and police discovered him a short time later.

Dr. A. D. DeHaven was called and rendered medical attention. While the skull was not fractured Myers lay in a stupor almost all day Tuesday and would not talk of the accident.
It is supposed that the buggy in which he was riding struck the railing of the bridge when he was driving fast which caused him to be thrown from the vehicle.

Keeping Cider Sweet.

To keep cider sweet place in each barrel immediately on making, mustard, four ounces; salt, one ounce, and ground chalk, one ounce. Shake well.
Or cider may be preserved sweet by canning in airtight cans after the manner of preserving fruit. The liquid should be first settled and racked off from the dregs, but fermentation must not be allowed to commence before canning or it will not keep.

SALOONS IN OHIO CEASE TO EXIST

Columbus, O., May 27.—Sale of whiskey and kindred alcohols as a business in Ohio ceased at midnight last night and Ohio officially entered the list of states that have prohibited traffic in spirits as the biggest state yet to take such a step.

Most saloons went out of business Saturday, when their licenses for the year expired, but 165 paid $305 to stay open yesterday.

The state goes dry through adoption last November of a constitutional amendment.
Nine Columbus saloons, including several hotel and club establishments had a record business throughout yesterday and last night. Most of them piled on prices in the last few hours, but cost seemed no object to those who were bent on a last and final farewell to John Barleycorn.

"Best for Sore Muscles" Says Olympian Athlete

E. T. Cook, Jr.,
Famous Cornell
Sprinter Says:

"I would recommend it (Houstonia Liniment) above all others for keeping the muscles in best condition; for pulled tendons, sprains or poisoned cuts from spiked shoes, etc."

Sore, stiff muscles are a handicap in every walk of life.
Shop injuries (like those of the track) may prove serious unless precautions are taken.

The worker is wise who keeps Houstonia (The Original Jones') Liniment on hand. Not only does it penetrate quickly to the deeper tissues—relieving pain, soreness and swelling—but its antiseptic, healing properties are invalua-able in case of injury. No other liniment possesses all these virtues.

Say "House-tone-e-ah" to your druggist. Large bottles are fifty cents—four ounce bottles a "quarter."

"The kind your daddy used with my dad's picture on the yellow wrapper."

THE DR. J. C. JONES COMPANY, So. Charleston, Ohio.
Houstonia Liniment is sold in Xenia by Sohn's Drug Store, Sayre & Hemphill, D. D. Jones and A. C. Hawkins.
